

After The Holidays,
Everyone Always Asks

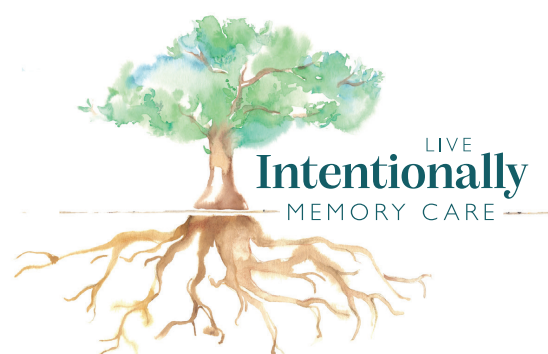

How Are Mom and Dad?

Did you notice Dad needed more help getting around the house this year? Was Mom repeating herself more than usual? The holidays are a wonderful time spent with loved ones, but when we start noticing small changes, it causes a lot of stress. This year, give yourself the gift of peace of mind and your loved one a worry-free lifestyle when they call Summerfield of Roseville home.

Our programs are about more than passing the time - they help residents rediscover a sense of purpose, acceptance, and may even help slow the progression of the disease at early-onset.

- Team specially trained in memory care
- Care and services for early, middle, and late stages of Alzheimer's and dementia
- Licensed nursing staff on-site seven days a week
- Secure, accepting, encouraging setting that promotes optimal health and well-being
